Registration and Class Policies

- Early Bird Registration by March 12th saves you 10% per class! Regular registration will be accepted through March 27, 2010. After that, students must take classes by paying drop-in fees.
- Tuition and fees are not refundable. Registered student may make up missed classes within the Spring 2010 Session; make-ups CANNOT be carried to the next session. Medical exceptions may be made with a letter from a health professional.
- Zorongo does not accept credit cards this session.
- Zorongo reserves the right to cancel any class with fewer than five students registered.
- Zorongo Flamenco Dance Theatre and School and its instructors are not responsible for injuries sustained or illness contracted by the student during class sessions.
- Women's dress: leotard, full skirt, flamenco-heeled shoes (or 1" character shoes), hair pulled back from face.
- Men's dress: shirt, comfortable pants, flamenco boots or leather shoes/boots with heels.
- Flamenco shoes: flamenco shoes are the most essential tool in classes. Buying semi-professional or professional flamenco shoes is more ideal than buying character shoes. Shoes can be found at Grand Jeté in St. Paul. There are used shoes sold at Zorongo Studio as well. Many students buy shoes on the internet. The following are examples of some web sites: www.flamencoshoes.com/; www.flamencoshop.com/footwear.htm; www.flamencoexport.com/; www.flamenco-world.com/; and www.taconesy lunares.com/.
